

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR GLORIA MOLINA

October 21, 2003

On Monday, October 6, 2003 at approximately 3:10 p.m., Delia Ochoa was working at the front counter of Los Tres Gallos Liquor Market—located at 6226 South Holmes Avenue in unincorporated Los Angeles—when two gunmen shot her without provocation. Witnesses saw the suspects armed with a handgun as they fled the market and sped off in a vehicle described as a mid-1980s faded red or maroon compact car. Paramedics transported Ms. Ochoa to a local hospital where, unfortunately, she succumbed to her wounds and died.

The Los Angeles County Sheriff’s Department Homicide Bureau is working hard to bring the perpetrators to justice. However, they believe the establishment of a reward would be helpful to their investigation.

THEREFORE, I MOVE THAT the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors establish a $25,000 reward for two weeks for anyone with information leading to the arrest and conviction of the suspects responsible for this heinous crime.
